Shri A.S.Iqubal, learned counsel for the appellant.

This is an appeal for enhancement of compensation awarded in a personal injury case. The only point urged by the learned counsel for the appellant is that the quantum of compensation awarded by the learned Motor Accident Claims Tribunal is not just and reasonable. However, learned counsel for the appellant does not dispute the fact that no medical evidence was led before the learned Motor Accident Claims Tribunal by the appellant/claimant. Para-20 of the award passed by the learned Motor Accident Claims Tribunal clearly shows that an amount of Rs.2,472/- towards medical treatment, a sum of Rs.5,000/- towards pain and suffering and another sum of Rs.1,000/- towards proper nourishment during treatment was awarded, thus in total an amount of Rs.8,472/- was awarded. It is also not disputed by learned counsel for the appellant that no permanent disability was suffered by the appellant.

In this view of the matter, the compensation awarded by the learned Motor Accident Claims Tribunal is just and reasonable compensation.

In the result, this appeal being devoid of merit and is dismissed at the stage of admission. No costs.
